David Rice named Southern California chapter president of AAA

For immediate release

Los Angeles—January 9, 2006—The Association for Accounting Administration has named David Rice president of its Southern California chapter. David Rice is the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer at Stonefield Josephson, a full-service, California-based certified public accounting firm. “During my year as president, I will focus on a strategic approach for the Southern California chapter, building awareness and increasing membership,” said David Rice. Los Angeles chapter meetings are held quarterly and David will reside as chapter president until July of 2006.

The Association for Accounting Administration, (www.cpaadmin.org) was founded on January 1, 1984 to enable accounting firm administrators to communicate with one another and provide each other with the benefits of everyone’s experience of what was a new and emerging profession.

Stonefield Josephson, Inc. (www.sjaccounting.com) is a California-based certified public accounting firm founded in 1975. The full-service firm serves public and privately held clients throughout the United States and internationally from four California locations: Los Angeles, Orange County, San Francisco and East Bay.
