Stonefield Josephson San Francisco office moves to 101 Montgomery Street

For immediate release

Los Angeles—January 27, 2006—President Jeffrey M. Garrison of Stonefield Josephson, a California-based certified public accounting firm, announced today that the San Francisco office has relocated from 655 Montgomery Street to 101 Montgomery Street. Chief Financial Officer/Chief Operating Officer David Rice says, “Stonefield Josephson has committed to a nine-year lease at 101 Montgomery Street. The new office space accommodates a 40-percent employee growth rate.”

Garrison says that the Stonefield Josephson San Francisco office moved to accommodate what he describes as “an ambitious Platform for Growth” strategic plan. “The San Francisco office provides our employees with an environment that is conducive to high morale as part of our recruiting and retention program,” said Garrison.

Stonefield Josephson, Inc. (www.sjaccounting.com) is a California-based certified public accounting firm founded in 1975. The full-service firm serves public and privately held clients throughout the United States and internationally from four California locations: Los Angeles, Orange County, San Francisco and East Bay.
